

Here you will find all needed information for the EBTA tiny-conference, - and if you still have questions, please contact one of the organizers.

WHEN: September 2022 from Friday 23rd to Sunday 25th

WHERE: At Norddeutsche Institute für Kurzzeittherapie (NIK) in Bremen, Außer der Schleifmühle 40, 28203 Bremen

TIME: Registration from 1:30 Friday, the program starts at 2 pm. The conference ends at 1 pm Sunday.

PRICE: For EBTA-members; 250€. For non-members: 300€

LIMITATION: The tiny-conference is limited for 50 seats only, as this is the capacity of NIK.

REGISTRATION: you sign up by emailing info@nik.de with information like name, address, city, country whether you're EBTA member or not, and where to send an invoice if not the sender-email. Afterwards you'll receive an invoice to be paid right away. Only when your payment is registered, and you get a confirmation-email, you are fully registered.

SCHOLARSHIP: EBTA offer three scholarships. You can find the application form and procedure at the EBTA.eu-website, deadline June 15th. EBTA supports diversity and encourages anyone despite race, religion, gender and sexuality to apply.

ORGANIZERS: The Tiny-Conference is organized in collaboration between

- Manfred Voigt (NIK),
- Ursula Bühlmann (Creathera)
- Anne-Marie Wulf (SolutionsbyWulf).

If you have any questions, please contact one of us by sending an email, - all contact information is available at www.EBTA.eu

ACCOMODATION: You'll have to find accommodation, hotels, B&B, AirBnB for yourself, - there are lots of opportunities in Bremen.

TRANSPORT: NIK is seated in the western part of north Germany, and is easy to go to. There's an airport and good train connections. Or maybe you can go by car, - remember to check parking places.

BREMEN: Offers a lot to see, although the program doesn't leave much spare time. Go see the old city quarter, Schnoor Viertel or the Town Musicians of Bremen, also in the center. You can find further info at Tripadvisor.

Best regards
Manfred, Ursula & Anne-Marie
